DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 19-21 are objected to because of the following informalities: The claim is drawn to an activator, however, it appears that the claim should recite a catalyst or catalyst component instead. Furthermore, claim 21 appears to describe the transition metal component of the catalyst, not the activator. See claim 13 for use of the term activator to designate a catalyst component. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 1, 4, 6, 13, 17, 19 and 20 recite the term "capping atoms." There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claims. The term is conspicuously ill-defined in independent claims 1 and 13. Dependent claims 2-12 and 14-21 are subsumed under the rejection.

4. The general subject matter of the claims appears novel over the prior art cited in the accompanying PTO-892 and in Applicants' information disclosure statement. Claims are drawn to a method comprising polymerizing an olefin in the presence of a clathrochelate. Although the prior art discloses clathrochelates that are essentially the same as those claimed, the prior art does not teach a method of polymerization using these compounds. It is deemed that such an application is not made obvious to the skilled artisan in any of the documents.
